4406	10/06/01	03	Customer stated she gave CA # to call and instructed CA to ask for a specific person or to just say grandma is calling. CA asked VCO caller to pls repeat #. Customer sent voice macro twice with no response. CA typed again pls repeat number calling to. Customer sent voice macro 4 times. Customer asked CA for supervisor and customer said CA then typed ok one moment then CA hung up on her. I apologized and informed her that the agent would be coached. Customer satisfied with conversation. no follow up needed.	10/13/01	Agent sent voice now macro and then hit the keys to hear the VCO user. VCO user was speaking during the time the macro was being sent across so agent was unable to hear the VCO's voice response. CA understand to make request and just open the bridge instead of sending the voice now macro.

3162E	10/08/01	21	Customer stated that she called a voice friend and they conversed back and forth for a while and then suddenly customer got a lot of garble. Customer kept saying hello are you still there? Finally operator came back on. I did not get a person hung up or anything. I asked for a sup and the assist sup apologized for the agent. She told me that the agent was brand new and just graduated last Friday. She said she is a good operator with a lot of potential and just needs more experience. Customer felt sorry for new opr but did not understand why new opr was not better supported by sups and trainers being with them for coaching when they are brand new. Customer felt that she still needed to report this because there needs to be more support for new agents. CS rep apologized that her call became confusing and thanked her for calling to let us know. Told her this report would be sent to the call center and copied to the AM for follow up on better new training measures that could be provided.	12/20/01	11/27 no answer 12/4 no answer 12/20 left message. 12/20 returned call and pleased that these are resolved.

3166E	10/08/01	4	Customer states that she gave agent 4960M the number to dial and told him to ask for customer service. The agent never did tell her when the company answered the phone but just typed (holding to music) then when the customer tried several times to interrupt him with "voice please" the agent never responded. The customer gave him several XXXX's and again there was no response. Finally he answered and the customer told him that she did not understand what he was doing on the call and he proceeded to hang up on the customer. She then called Relay CS to turn in a complaint. CS rep responded by thanking the customer for letting us know and assured her that we would turn in a complaint so that this could be investigated and so agent could receive further coaching.	10/12/01	Talked with agent and he said he followed customer instructions and asked for CS. Agent saw xx's typed and activated VCO and heard ty tones. Turned off VCO to read type but none appeared. This sequence repeated itself until finally he heard the customer say something in angry tone and then hang up. Agent followed correct procedure according to agent's account.

3165E	10/08/01	17	Agent dialed wrong number on first try. Customer gave agent specific instructions on how to handle connecting to her bank. Agent did not follow instructions and again had dialed wrong number. Customer gave the number again and instructed agent. Agent typed as instructed, kept customer informed of call progress then typed PERSON HUNG UP. Customer asked agent what he said that they hung up as she makes the call often, agent told her he no longer had the information. When customer tried to question the agent further he hung up on her. Customer is very frustrated with the poor service she is getting from Sprint Relay. CS rep told the customer she understand her frustration and that I would forward her complaint to the agent supervisor.	10/09/01	Agent dialed number provided and waited for live rep, per instructions, when rep answered, agent announced relay and person hung up. Agent did not realize he should have told cust agent had announced relay and person hung up at the time it occurred. Coached him in keeping the customer informed.

			Customer placed a CO relay call through agent 9746F. When the hearing party ended the call the agent just typed SKSK after the other party's remarks and did not send the correct macro "person hung up" ga or sk. Customer then kept trying to speak to the agent to place another call or to check and see if the hearing person hung up, but never got a response. Apparently the agent just typed sksk and hung up. CS rep thanked the customer for calling and apologized.	10/10/01	Spoke with the agent regarding this complaint. The agent did recall processing this particular call. Agent states that the VCO user was the outbound party. When the inbound voice customer disconnected, agent typed sksk to the VCO user and waited for the system to disconnect the call. the outboundVCO user wanted the agent to place a call. Agents cannot place calls for the outbound party because when the inbound party disconnects, the system will automatically disconnect the outbound party in approx 40 - 60 sec. Agent was informed that she should have sent the person hung up sksk macro then pushed the key to disconnect the call. Agent is now fully aware of the procedure.

3168E	10/09/01	15	Customer placed a CO relay call through agent 3111M. She says when he reached the other party he just typed "recording playing" and entering info. The only thing she had told him to do was to ask for Lana whens someone did answer. Customer was not sure she had reached the right place since agent did not type the name of the place reached. I thanked the customer for calling. I did explain to her that if the agent types the entire recording to her they would have to redial a second time to reach someone most likely, although I understand that she did not know what place she had reached. She kept trying to get the agents attention by pressing voc pls and xx's and the call got very confusing. 9930	10/09/01	3	TTY customer complained that the agent did not follow instructions. Customer typed redial for live person. Agent typed (ans mach) and did not redial for a live person. Apologized to the customer and informed the ty customer if the line was answered by an answering machine then there was no option for a live person.	10/09/01	Spoke with agent regarding this complaint and agent states that she sent the answering machine macro to inform the customer that it was an answering machine not a recording playing. The agent followed proper procedure in keeping the customer informed.
3193E	10/12/01	25	Caller said she requested agent to dial a number, she received the dialling macro then garble. Two times she asked agent are you there and got no answer. Then agent disconnected. 1614	10/15/01	21	Customer was upset because they wanted CA to repeat part of conversation after the call had ended. I told them I was sorry but relay policy does not allow the CA to repeat conversation. They would need to ask outbound person to repeat. Caller said it was CA's job to repeat info because they heard it and it was not fair because they ask tly to repeat if it's garbled. TTY was upset and wanted CA to redial and ask person to repeat.	10/15/01	Team Lead explained policy and offered to have CA place a call. Customer eventually accepted new CA to place call to same outbound. When call was completed customer requested sup and stated same concerns. Asked sup to find 1st CA and ask what part of the earlier call was mistyped or garbled. TL expressed that I understood her frustration but due to relay policy for confidentiality we did not have any record of past calls nor could we locate the past CA to discuss the past call content. Offered to have an AM contact her for further discussion of policy twice...caller hung up.
3195E	10/15/01	11	Customer requested agent to just type S.T. when Senior Transportation recording had come on line and then give the GA when it was time for customer to leave message. Agent typed ST GA all at once and not as customer requested. Customer wanted agent to space it out during the message then give GA when it was time to leave a message. Customer asked for sup and after explaining to sup what happened sup said this was an unusual request and because it was out of the ordinary it confused the agents until they are explained about it further. Customer didn't think it was such a hard request for the agent. CS rep thanked the customer for letting us know about it. Assured her that we would turn in the complaint and have it checked into further if anything more could be done.	12/20/01	11/13 no answer 11/27 no answer 12/4 no answer 12/20 left message 12/20 returned my call - satisfied and pleased that matters are resolved.

3200E	10/16/01	29	ATT cell phone customer lives in Wash DC and he is in Colorado now. He is using his cell phone with a Krown pocket speak n read device. When customer calls CO relay the agent gets recording that his Long Distance has been temp disconnected. The number showing on the agent's screen is different than his cell phone. Customer said he called from NY relay last week and was able to place his call with no problem. CS rep apologized to the customer that he is having this problem calling thru CO relay and told him I would pass this info on to resolve the issue.	12/20/01	Could not follow up due to lack of customer info.
3200E			Customer called in stating that after she was finished talking to her mother the agent never let her know that her mother had hung up the phone. She asked for sup (Sherr) and told her the problems. Sup told customer that it did show up on the screen that the agent informed the customer that the party had hung up. Customer thought both the agent and sup were covering up. When the customer first came into CS it was ASCII and did not get a response from the customer. The second time finally got a response from the customer and the CS rep told the customer about this situation of what happened and that there might be a problem with the customer's equipment. Customer became very agitated and said that she thought the CS rep was trying to cover up too. she hung up after that.	10/19/01	spoke to CA and the CA did send the macro which the sup saw so therefore the CA did follow procedure.

3219E	10/21/01	3	VCO customer complained that the agent did not follow her instructions on several calls that she placed such as typing out an entire message instead of just typing Wells like the customer instructed. VCO customer is concerned about this agent and thinks they need training. CS rep apologized for problems encountered and advised the complaint would be forwarded to sup	10/22/01	Agent followed procedures on most areas except one and that one agent was coached on to follow instructions more precisely.
4422	10/21/01	3	Customer complained that the agent did not follow her instructions by asking the agent to dial the number and just type the company name and wait for a live person. The agent typed recording playing and started to type Wells when she was interrupted by the customer. She typed Wells and waiting for banker and was interrupted by the customer again. After the call completed customer asked for sup. Apologized for any difficulty with the call and told her this would be followed up for coaching. Customer satisfied. Thanked customer for her input.	10/23/01	Followed up with agent and found that the agent did the right procedure.
3223E	10/22/01	6	Customer wanted to file a complaint against this agent because she had the worst spelling skills the customers ever seen. They were simple words and clearly not typos. Customer would like to see more training for the agents. CS rep thanked the customer for taking the time to call and let us know and apologized for the frustrations she went through. Told her the report would be sent to the call center where the agent is located.	10/25/01	After reviewing this complaint the agent was blind monitored and it was discovered that this agent does have problems spelling. Appropriate action was taken.

Agent thought that since she was told to ask for the pharmacist that she wanted to be connected right away. Customer asked for sup and waited and waited then discovered she had been hung up on. CS rep apologized that the call was not handled so that she would know that she had reached the correct number, and that the opr disconnected her call, without getting the sup first. Thanked her for letting us know and told her the complaint would be sent to the call center.	10/23/01	Agent admitted that she did not type the outbound person's greeting. Agent received first warning about following relay procedures. Agent also stated that when the customer requested a sup she requested the sup assist. However the sup was assisting another agent. By the time the sup arrived the customer had disconnected. Agent was also coached on the importance of keeping the customer informed. QA will continue to monitor this agent.

	11/28/01	8	Caller said that there was a pause and then agent came on line, introduced himself and was robotic. Cut off and unacceptable unlike the agent who started the call. When the agent requested my assistance, I asked the caller to be more specific about what the agent did. She kept rambling about problems in her life and when I asked her again to give me specifics about the agent she began to use abusive language. I advised her that the call would be disconnected if she continued to be abusive, she continued, I then disconnected.	11/28/01	Immediately after the call I spoke with agent regarding the complaint. The agent states that the customer became angry when they switched agents and when he attempted to pace her because she was speaking too fast. The agent states that he then requested a sup because the voice user began to yell and curse. The agent followed proper procedure, requesting a sup when the customer became irate, however the agent was coached on voice tone, relaying with expression, and conversational flow. This agent will be monitored by the QA dept to make sure he is providing quality service.

TT 04788350	02/25/02	Addressed agent and sup regarding this complaint. Agent stated that the customer was complaining about garble and not receiving text on his screen. Customer then requested sup. Jimmy assisted on the call. Jimmy states that he identified himself and the customer typed Jimmy whatever you typed I could not see what you typed. Jimmy then typed can you read me now? the customer responded no after typing and waiting for a response 3 times the customer disconnected. I also spoke with the tech support and was informed that they are working with this particular customer regarding the garbling problem.
4536	01/30/02	26	TTY user is informing us of his effort to resolve the garbling problem he has with relay. After communicating with sprint tech, he is still experiencing garbling from the relay ops. This is after making an adjustment on his ty and also using the 800 relay nbr not 711. Both as suggested by the sprint techs. He is expecting further communication from sprint techs. I apologized for the continued frustration, hoping a resolution can be found soon. I assured him another it would be submitted. Customer is expecting a callback from sprint tech. TT 04788466	01/31/02	Technican re-programmed and corrected all echo cancellors.

3702	01/30/02	3	CO VCO customer has been experiencing severe garbling problems. They placed a LD call tonight and after approx 15 - 20 min the garbling began. They disconnected with the outbound. At theat time they requested to speak to a sup. They were placed on hold for a while and then without warning transferred to CS. They state this happens frequently. The customer would like the call traced to determine the agent id nbr. They also requested a follow up from AM. I apologized and explained it was not common practice to transfer without approval. Suggested the cusotmer document agent id nbrs. Customer suggested when a call is transferred to CS that the agent id's # follws through the transfer. Forwarded this info to the AM for follow up.	04/19/02	Bari understood the problems and are satisfied with resolutions.

	01/31/02	01	Customer Called in upset about the call. Customer stated agent took 20 minutes to dial the nbr and that when the nbr was dialed, the agent typed (M) instead of the correct gender, which was (F). After reviewing the call I noticed the customer provided too many nbrs to be dialed. I apologized for the delay., and informed the customer that I would follow up with the agent and the QA dept. I also coached the agent on alternative procedures that she could have followed to help in getting the correct nbr from the customer. The agent understood and agreed the customer understood and requested a different agent to continue the relay call.	02/15/02	After receiving this complaint the agent was blind monitored to further investigate. While monitoring several calls, processed by the agent, it was observed that she does dial the calling to nbr promptly and also send the correct gender. Addressed the agent regarding the complaint however she had no recollection of this call. I informed the agent of the 6 sec dial out policy that must be adhered to at all times. I also informed her that if too many nbrs are provided that she should clarify the nbr with the caller. If the caller is unresponsive a Sup should be alerted to further assist with the call. Regarding the incorrect gender she should immediately make the necessary correction by using the backspace key. The agent QA file was also reviewed to investigate how the agent had performed on processing calls. The QA department will continue to monitor this agent to ensure that she continues to perform quality work and customer satisfaction.
